Prices don't include shipping ($4 for the first book, $1 for each additional book). Books are shipped Media Mail, which sometimes takes up to two weeks, longer in some areas.

Payment by check is best, but send me an email and have me save the books you want. I'm working on getting PayPal or credit cards set up. We can discuss options.

20% discount on all purchases! First come, first serve (I'm not ordering more books!). So if you know you want something, tell me right away to save it for you. Note that there's a "Subject" column. All social history books are labeled "Soc Hist"; women's history as "Wom Hist"; states by their postal codes. There aren't many state-centered books in the list yet, but future lists will include those. I entered the more general interest books first. If you are interested in social history, do a search for "soc hist" and you'll find them. Authors are in alphabetical order in case you're looking for a specific book. Books are priced according to what I originally paid for them. Often this is lower than the new-book price on Amazon, but sometimes you can get a decent used copy for less.

Books for sale are all new and in excellent condition, unless otherwise noted. Some have shelf wear, which is noted. Some wear is bad enough that the price is reduced from what I paid.

We can arrange payment by check or PayPal. Contact me with your order (to reserve your choices) and we'll discuss what is easiest.
