

2nd SATURDAYS at the library

June 8	Jewish Genealogy with Vivian Kahn This talk will offer an introduction to Jewish family research highlighting the increasingly vast resources available online and on the ground both in the US and overseas.
July 13	Membership Meeting and Special Talks by Bill O'Neil and Liz Summerhayes We will learn the stories behind Bill's collection of dolls dressed in military uniforms. Liz will share her MyHeritage DNA bounty.
August 10	Proud to Be Portuguese with Ralph Severson Ralph will give a summary of the portuguese diaspora to Africa, Madeira, Brazil and the Azores. He will then explain and demonstrate an approach to research in Portugal, the Azores, and Madeira, touching also on Brazil, but with less emphasis.
September 14	Immigrant Plantation Workers in Hawaii: A Multi-Ethnic Approach to Genealogy with Cindy Thomson This presentation will include examples of how historical and cultural context and chronicles of everyday life can provide rich and memorable impressions of plantation-era ancestors in Hawaii.
October 12	Chinese Exclusion Case Study with Trish Nicola This presentation will include background information about what was happening in China and the U.S. leading up to passage of the Act, and give you examples of the types of documents that were created for Chinese individuals over the sixty-one years the Act was in existence.
November 9	Following the Paper Trail in England & Wales 1837-1939 with Jeremy Frankel Jeremy will explore the kinds of records available for researching ancestors in England and Wales from 1837 when civil registration began to the outbreak of World War II.
December 14	Scottish & Northern Ireland Genealogy with Mark McLaren The number of people worldwide with an ancestry from those areas is estimated between 70-90 million. Chances are you or someone's genealogy that you are working on has roots from there.

We are very excited about this program, emphasizing ethnic groups. Registration is required for all classes. Most classes are from 1 to 3 p.m. Please visit us at Eventbrite for more details and to register.
