Center for Sacramento History

January 11th. 4 pm - 5:30 pm • Presented by Kim Hayden

In addition to housing public records dating back to 1849, CSH also collects personal material from individuals, families, businesses, and organizations from throughout the county in order to help tell a complete story of the Sacramento region.

Government Publications @ California State Library

January 18th. 4 pm - 5:30 pm • Presented by Emily Blodgett

Buried within annual reports, government agency directories, legislative hearing transcripts, Congressional reports accompanying private bills, and even environmental and scientific reports, you can find a wealth of information about your ancestors.

Historical Resources @ California State Library

January 25th 4 pm - 5:30 pm • Presented by Elena Smith

Get an insider's look at the genealogy resources the California History Room of the California State Library has to offer, along with search tricks usable at many archives.

Journey to the West of the West: Genealogical Treasures at Sutro Library

February 1st, 4 pm - 5:30 pm • Presented by Dvorak Lewis

The Sutro Library is not just a physical hub for the genealogy community, it is also a virtual hub. Come learn about the highlights of the genealogy collection, how to search online, and how to access once on-site.

The California Archives

March 15th 4 pm - 5:30 pm • Presented by Chris Gamier

The California State Archives are an enormous repository with many types of information of interest to people with ancestors who lived in California.

Special Collections @ Sacramento Public Library

March 22nd. 4 pm - 5:30 pm

Presented by David Munger & James Scott

The Sacramento Public Library's Genealogy and Sacramento Room holdings mesh to provide one of Northern California's more robust family and local history collections.
