WHY WE DON'T KNOW MUCH ABOUT HISTORY,
featuring some of America's Hidden History and Stories
Your Schoolbooks Left Out

Kenneth C. Davis, author of the New York Times bestseller Don't Know Much About History, presents a collection of extraordinary stories, each detailing an overlooked episode that shaped the nation's destiny and character.

Did you know:

- That the real first Pilgrims were French and landed in Florida?
- That Columbus brought along pigs--and germs--on his second voyage?
- That Squanto spoke English really well?
- That one of the founding fathers wore a toga when he spoke in public?
- That Memorial Day was born in the ashes of the Civil War?

These are a few of the fascinating facts that Ken Davis brings to light in his work. Davis thinks history is a lot more interesting than dates, battles and speeches. Davis' dramatic narratives set the record straight, busting myths and bringing to light little-known but fascinating facts from a time when the nation's fate hung in the balance.
